International Coconut Community (ICC) established in 1969, is an independent regional intergovernmental organization currently consisting of twenty member countries, namely: Federated States of Micronesia, Fiji, Guyana, India, Indonesia, Jamaica, Kenya, Kiribati, Malaysia, Marshall Islands, Papua New Guinea, Philippines, Samoa, Solomon Islands, Sri Lanka, Thailand, Tonga, Timor Leste, Vanuatu and Vietnam. The objectives of ICC are to promote, coordinate and harmonize all activities of the coconut industry with a view to achieving the maximum economic development of industry.

PREFACE

The Secretariat of the International Coconut Community (ICC) is pleased to publish the Tenth Edition of the Directory of Coconut Traders (Exporters/ Importers) and Equipment Manufacturers. This publication, initiated in 1995, aligns with our commitment to promote product and market development in the coconut industry by disseminating relevant information on both traditional and emerging coconut products, as well as the traders (exporters and importers) of these products in the world market.

This Directory would be beneficial for those who are directly and indirectly engaged in the coconut industry. The Directory contains information of 4,880 entities of coconut-based businesses who are involved as manufacturers and trade as exporters and importers of coconut products. The second category included are manufacturers of coconut processing equipment and machinery. The entries are alphabetically arranged by country name and company name. The Directory is equipped with indexes arranged by country name to facilitate the retrieval of information.

We express our sincere gratitude to the stakeholders who have contributed towards the Tenth Edition of this Directory including all National Liaison Officers of ICC member countries as well as BPS-Statistics Indonesia, United Coconut Associations of the Philippines, the Philippine Coconut Authority, Coconut Development Authority of Sri Lanka, Coconut Development Board and Coir Board of India, Ben Tre's Business Directory, International Trade Centre and other collaborating institutions.

I would like to sincerely appreciate the dedicated and tireless efforts of Mr. Alit Pirmansah, Market & Statistics Officer, for meticulously collecting, compiling and organizing the relevant information, with the invaluable assistance of Mr. Rahman Halim Novrizal.

ICC Executive Director
